Germany, Venezuela, Portugal, Florida, Netherlands, Senegal, Tunisia are some of the countries she travelled to and made her home.

All the different flavors she found along the way are present in her cooking. Together with her life philosophy, “Kaizen” (Japanese for “good change”) the philosophy of Continuous Improvement, which she prides in.

Finally, she decided to settle down in the south of Gran Canaria. With its privileged climate and incredible beaches, it receives a lot of tourism every year. She made it her work to “pamper” tourists with the tastiest food & best service. She also caters to locals on celebrations and collaborates on Cooking Events and TV shows.

In addition, she does 1 to 1 cooking classes and helps you elaborate your own Dinner Party, even when abroad.
